

Shanballymore National School Christmas Newsletter 2020

Covid 19 and public Health Guidelines: Thank you for all your cooperation in abiding by the public health guidelines since the school reopened in late August. Please remember to follow the guidelines in the new year. Visitors are asked not to enter the school premises without prior notice or permission. Please use email or telephone to contact the relevant teacher. shanballymorens@gmail.com or 022 25611. Thank you.

Parent Teacher Meetings: All parent teacher meetings have now been completed. Thank you for your co-operation in carrying out the Parent Teacher Meeting over the phone this year.

Christmas Prayer Service was due to be held in the church on 22nd Dec but due to Covid restrictions the prayer service will not now go ahead.

School Website: Is now live. You can check out school policies and other parent information on shanballymorenationalschool.ie. The website will be developed and updated on a regular basis.

Cork Penny Dinners: Children wore Christmas jumpers for the charity. We collected €303, this money will be presented to Cork Penny Dinners on Tuesday 22nd December. Thank you.

Date of 1st Holy Communion: Sat 8th May 2021 in Shanballymore church.

Parents Association: Thanks to the Parents Association for organising a visit from Santa to the school, also many thanks to Santa for taking time to visit us and for the lovely gifts he brought to the children

As 2020 draws to a close there is no doubt that it has been a very strange and challenging year for everyone in Shanballymore National School and the wider community. I want to thank you for your cooperation and continued support throughout the year. As we look forward to 2021 together lets hope that it brings new blessings for everyone. I would like to take this opportunity to wish all pupils, parents and families of Shanballymore National School every blessing and joy for the festive season.

Nollaig Shona Dhaoibh go léir.
